- No, I am not ready at this time.
- Yes, I am ready to serve but not sure how, I will ask how.
- Yes, I already serve.
- Service will be a priority in life, growing to include the Following:

I will look for ways to give my time and strength to service the Lord. I will serve with joy and gladness. When I feel the Lord inviting me to greater levels of sacrifice and service, I will answer, "Yes, Lord, send me."
